

Todd C. Latham

Todd is a serial entrepreneur with over 18 years experience in business publishing, marketing and communications. He is President of We Communications Inc. – a national creative design and publishing company that produces ReNew Canada – the infrastructure renewal magazine as well as Canadian Water Treatment magazine and other titles and information products.

Todd is an experienced business communicator with broad industry knowledge and direct access to leaders in the Canadian environment, infrastructure and government sectors. Todd serves on the Board of Directors of Windrush Energy Corp. and on the Communications Committee of the Canadian Green Building Council. He is a co-founder of the Canadian Brownfields Network (CBN) and a member of their Advisory Panel.

Todd is an associate of the Canadian Urban Institute and emcee of their annual Brownie Awards celebrating national excellence in brownfield redevelopment. He is also a member of the University of Toronto's Environment Finance and The Natural City 2006 Steering Committees.

Contact: todd@wecomunications.ca or by phone at 416-444-5842.